CERTIFICATE

Concerning the use of non-electrical equipment in potentially explosive atmosphere.

The company

QUETTI LUIGI S.R.L.
Via Ruca 254 -25065 Lumezzane (BS) – Italia

Declares that

Its products do not fall within the scope of Directive 2014/34 / EU.

An explosion risk analysis has shown that these parts have no internal ignition source.

Provided that the instructions for use are followed correctly, the products can be used in the areas indicated above.

Observe the following guidelines:

- The parts must be used ONLY with compressed air
- Compressed air must not be discharged into potentially explosive dusty atmospheres.
- The exhaust air must be conveyed outside the potentially explosive area through pipes.
